

All-new Mazda2

...the lean, green driving machine

Redefined and redesigned

The Mazda2's been given a complete workover. Now 100kg leaner and with a trimmer dynamic sports styled body, it's a nimble, compact supermini whilst being surprisingly spacious. And it's extremely fuel efficient, with lower CO₂ emissions. So whatever colour you choose, it's green.

Each new generation of superminis is getting larger and heavier. The all-new Mazda2 is different. The same weight-saving 'gram strategy' that helps the Mazda MX-5 perform so well has been applied to the all-new Mazda2. Weighing less than 1,000kg means it performs better, uses less fuel and produces lower CO₂ emissions - with 15% lower CO₂ emissions.

There's also a high level of finish and an impressive level of detail throughout - including a three-spoke steering wheel, red-on-black stereo display, white gauges and an all-new centre console. The high-mounted gear knob makes changing gear effortless, while audio steering controls and an auxiliary jack for MP3 connectivity make for an easy change of mood.

Euro NCAP has awarded the all-new Mazda five-stars for adult occupant protection - the highest possible ranking. The car also received four stars for child protection and two stars for pedestrian protection.

It confirms the all-new Mazda2 as one of the safest superminis on the road.

In other words, the all-new Mazda2 is designed for you to sit back, have fun and completely enjoy the ride.
